

DACA: WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

WHAT WAS ANNOUNCED?

- DACA is rescinded.
- Rolling deportations begin March 6, 2018. (Applies to permits that expire on or after this date.)
- Work permits that expire on or before March 5th can be renewed up until October 5, 2017.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN FOR DREAMERS?

- Current DACA recipients are no longer able to re-enter the United States if they leave.
- New DACA applications will no longer be accepted.

WHO DOES THIS AFFECT?

- 800,000 DACA recipients currently live in the U.S.
- 38,000 San Diegans are currently eligible or could be in the future.
- 70% of DACA recipients came here at age 10 or younger and have no memory of a home other than the United States.

WHAT NOW?

- Congress needs to do its job and pass a law to permanently protect DREAMers.
